

INVITATION

Old + New Europe

New Forms of Labour Relations and Labour Standards as Social Challenge in an Enlarged Europe

Transnational Seminar, Stuttgart, 5th und 6th July 2007

at the Tagungshotel of the Deutsche Telekom

You are kindly invited to participate to a transnational exchange between science and industrial practice.

The transnational Seminar is targeted to representatives of industrial relations in enterprises in the so-called "old" and "new" Europe, especially in Germany, France, Italy, Croatia, Slovakia und the Czech Republic.

Two papers will focus on different labour relations and industrial conditions and discuss growing precarious settings. Experts will report on the preparation of three exemplary country studies. Reports based on different practice in the countries will complete the overview. The participants are invited to learn about communication platform ILIAS to be used for further information exchange and co-operation. Significant strategic approaches and will be selected and discussed. Further strategic co-operation will be agreed. We look forward to welcome you at the seminar.
